IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,	Case No. 3:20-MJ-00209
V.
DAKOTAH RAY HORTON	ORDER OF DETENTION AFTER HEARING (18 USC § 3142(i))
□ serious risk defendant will flee; □ serious risk defendant will obstruct or attemption or attempt to do so, □ Upon consideration by the court sua sponte involving □ serious risk defendant will flee;	community for cases involving crimes described in 18 USC § 3142(f)(1) opt to obstruct justice, or threaten, injure, or intimidate a prospective witness or a: put to obstruct justice, or threaten, injure, or intimidate a prospective witness or fense charged, the weight of evidence against the defendant, the history and sness of the danger to any person and to the community that would be posed by
\Box The offense charged creates a rebuttable presumption safety of the community.	in 18 USC § 3142(e) that no combination of conditions will reasonably assure the
☐ Foreign citizenship and/or illegal alien ☐ In ☐ ICE Detainer ☐ Ou ☐ Deportation(s) ☐ Pri ☐ Multiple or false identifiers ☐ Me ☐ Aliases ☐ In ☐ I	ably assure the appearance of defendant as required due to: custody/serving sentence
 No condition or combination of conditions will reason Nature of offense Arrest behavior Possession of weapon(s) Violent behavior Prior criminal history, □including drug/drug rel offense, Prior supervision failure(s), □ Including illicit of the conditions will reason 	drug use, including alcohol abuse
□ Other (writ/serving federal or state sentence): □ Defendant has not rebutted by sufficient evidence to th □ Defendant did not seek release, and therefore may requident on hearing under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that: 1. Defendant is detained prior to trial; 2. Defendant is committed to the custod far as practicable, from persons awaiting 3. Defendant shall be afforded a reasonary 4. The superintendent of the corrections	the contrary the presumption provided in 18 USC § 3142(e). The set a detention review hearing without making the required showing to reopen a set of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separated, as ing or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal; ble opportunity for private consultation with his counsel; facility in which defendant is confined shall make the defendant available to the of appearance in confection with any court proceeding.
DATED: August 19, 2020	United States Magistrate Judge